What will the workshop cover?

IMBEWU's Climate Change Law Workshop will provide you with a comprehensive and up-to-date understanding of South Africa's climate change legal regime, including:

- ❖ South Africa's international legal obligations in terms of the Paris Agreement;
- ❖ the Listed Activities and Minimum Emission Standards under the National Environmental Management: Air Quality Act (Air Quality Act);
- ❖ the Greenhouse Gas Reporting Regulations under the Air Quality Act;
- ❖ the Declaration of Greenhouse Gases as Priority Air Pollutants and the Pollution Prevention Plans Regulations;
- ❖ the Carbon Tax Bill, which is set to be implemented from June 2019;
- ❖ the Climate Change Bill; and
- ❖ the judgment of Earthlife Africa v Minister of Environmental Affairs which dealt with climate change as a relevant consideration in an environmental impact assessment.

Who should attend?

The following people should attend IMBEWU's Climate Change Law Workshop to get up to speed with South Africa's ever-evolving climate change legal regime:

- ❖ environmental, energy and sustainability consultants;
- ❖ sustainability managers in the energy, mining, transport, waste and chemicals industries; and
- ❖ government officials dealing with air quality or climate change legislation.
