IMBEWU's Environmental Law Update Workshop will cover the key developments in environmental law in 2020 and 2021, including case law, amendments to, and new regulations promulgated under, –

- ❖ the National Environmental Management Act 107 of 1998;
- ❖ environmental COVID-19 related legislation;
- ❖ mining legislation;
- ❖ air quality legislation;
- ❖ International and National climate change case law and legislation;
- ❖ the National Environmental Management: Waste Act 59 of 2008;
- ❖ water legislation; and
- ❖ the National Environmental Management: Biodiversity Act 10 of 2004.

The workshop content will be professionally recorded and will be made available as an online course from the month of February. In addition to having access to the video recordings, workshop participants will be provided with electronic PDF copies of the power point slides and important resource material such as up to date versions of the various Acts and Regulations as well as any case law referred to during the workshop. Course participants will be given the opportunity to direct questions relating to any content of the workshop to the three course presenters during a scheduled live Q&A session to be hosted online on dates yet to be determined. Demand for the Q&A sessions will dictate the number of scheduled sessions. EAPs, Environmental Consultants as well as Environmental Managers and Legal Advisors should sign up for this online workshop to keep up to date with the ongoing and important changes to environmental legislation.
